DETAILED ACTION

1 This action is responsive to the amendment filed on May 21, 2003.

2 The rejection of claim 35 under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph is withdrawn because of the applicant's amendment.

3 Claims 34-58 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nogami et al. (WO 98/56337) in view of Yuhas (US 4,226,889), for the reasons set forth in the previous office action in paper No. 12, dated 12/19/2002.

Response to Applicant's Arguments

4 Applicant's arguments filed 5/21/2002 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

With respect to the rejection based upon Nogami (WO' 337) in view of Yuhas (US' 889), Applicant argues that the teachings of the references are contrary to the specific claims of the present invention, which are directed to a composition in which volatile organic compounds, such as alcohols, are to be specifically avoided or limited.

The examiner respectfully disagrees with the above arguments because the reference of Nogami (WO' 337) teaches non-limiting examples of solubilizing agents that include water and polyalkylene glycols (see page 7, lines 12-19). Further, Yuhas (US' 889) teaches that fragrance compounds are presented in solvents such as water or alcohol (see col. 3, lines 5-10).

Furthermore, none of the references teaches the volatile organic compounds in percentages greater than those claimed. Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of the ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to be motivated to choose non volatile solvents such as water or polyalkylene glycol as taught by Nogami or water as taught by Yuhas to make such a composition or to optimize the amount of the volatile compounds in the composition in order to get a maximum results. Accordingly, a prima facie case of obviousness has been established.

5      THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
